WHAT IS GENESIS HOUSE?

Genesis House is a faith-based housing facility established in January of 2018. It was created to meet the ongoing needs of women and children impacted by homelessness and domestic violence in Northwest Iowa. Genesis House serves women who are homeless, transitioning out of rehabilitation or incarceration, or are otherwise seeking a safe place to work on breaking the cycles of poverty, violence, and addiction. We believe that, in order to truly break unhealthy life cycles, our residents need to embrace their worth as a human being and as a child of God. Genesis House's weekly programming requires its residents to attend life skills classes, Bible study, educational classes at Love Inc of Sheldon, mental health counseling, sobriety counseling when appropriate, and financial education. Genesis House also provides community members as mentors and/ or tutors for the woman and children who live here.

DOES GENESIS HOUSE PROVIDE EMERGENCY HOUSING?

No. Genesis House is not equipped to accept residents on an emergency basis. A woman who is interested in living at Genesis House must first fill out the Genesis House application.

HOW DO I APPLY TO BE A RESIDENT AT GENESIS HOUSE?

The application process includes a written residency application, a face to face interview, professional and character references, and a background check. Genesis House staff will notify you when we receive your application. When a room becomes available, staff will contact you to schedule an interview. Residency is determined based on need, criteria qualifications, and how well the applicant can live in a community setting. Applications available at genesishouseiowa.org.

WHAT ARE THE QUALIFICATIONS TO APPLY FOR RESIDENCY?

The applicant must be at least 18 years of age, at least 30 day sober having completed an in-patient rehabilitation program, be able to appropriately manage and self-administer medications, and be able to appropriately interact with other residents in community (dorm style) living environment. If there are mental health concerns, applicant must provide Genesis House with documentation showing mental health systems are well managed with medication and/or mental health counseling.

HOW LONG CAN SOMEONE LIVE AT GENESIS HOUSE?

As long as a resident is following Genesis House's rules, policies, and program, the resident may stay at Genesis House up to 24 months.

HOW IS GENESIS HOUSE FUNDED?

Genesis House is almost exclusively funded by churches and individuals of Northwest Iowa.
